

Consultant Profile

Dr. Karsten Zeugträger

(Born 1963)

Background

- Divisional management in logistics / export control / electronics- and electromechanics production / project management
- Long-standing management experience in the fields of drive and automation technologies and with international medium-sized company and corporate group structures
- Intercultural competence by designing and implementing international logistics networks
- PhD in Mechanical engineering - Production technology
- Assistant at the Institute of Production Systems and Logistics, University of Hanover, Germany

Executive Search

- Search and selection of high qualified managers and specialists in all functional divisions of your company in the following branches:
Distribution logistics, intra-Logistics, drive technology, automation technology, electronics, mechanical and plant engineering, automotive, packaging technology
- Search and recruitment of national and international executives with high specialization in the fields of:
Transport, logistics, production, site/plant management, supply chain, purchasing, materials management, quality management, import/export, export control, maintenance, customer service, project lead, business process management

Business Consulting

- Conceptual design of international logistics networks: strategy, structure, processes, IT-integration
- Conception and optimization of intra-logistics systems
- Conception and optimization of production systems, lean-management implementation
- Analysis, redesign and optimization of business processes - especially in distribution, logistics, production, export control