

Consultant Profile

Dr. Thomas Wahlers
(born 1963)

Background

- Senior Management experience with international medical care companies, and optical and high-tech Industry
- Leading Positions in procurement/supply chain, logistics, IT, business-process engineering
- Experiences in medium-sized companies as well as in complex holding structures
- Intercultural competencies through international leading positions, and management of international supply-chains
- PhD in mechanical engineering / production technologies

Executive Search

Search and selection of high qualified managers and specialists in all functional divisions of your company in the following branches:

- HealthCare/Medical devices, Optics and Precision mechanics, Photonics, High-Technology, Mechanical and Plant engineering, Electronics
- Search and recruitment of national and international executives with high specialization in the fields of: Procurement, material management, supply-chain, logistics, production, site/plant management, quality management, R&D

Business Consulting

- Optimization of procurement organizations regarding structure, roles & responsibilities, qualification
- Procurement 4.0
- Analysis and optimization of business processes
- Development of procurement and category strategies
- Design of professional supplier management processes
- Systematic material cost reductions
- KPI, Reporting and information management
- Requirement on procurement from medical device regulatory